The Prince Claus Fund is currently looking for a trainee or volunteer for the Public Programme.

Starting: 1 March 2018.
Term: 4 – 6 months for 3 days a week

The Prince Claus Fund is looking for a new Public Programme trainee! As Public Programme trainee, you will work with the Public Programme Coordinator to share the Fund’s work with the public in the Netherlands and online. We’ll be busy with the implementation of a new digital campaign, events in the Netherlands and preparing for gallery openings. If you are a social media guru and an efficient, enthusiastic worker with a passion for culture, apply to join our team!

Next Generation Programme

The Next Generation Programme of the Prince Claus Fund is a 3-year programme (2018 – 2020), designed to work with and for young people (now aged 15 - 30) worldwide through arts and culture. It aims to encourage people who are young and working with arts and culture to be more confident about themselves, unprejudiced and more open-minded towards others.

Tasks

The main task of the trainee/volunteer will be assisting with the implementation of a digital campaign and the organization of public events as part of our Next Generation programme. You will work under the supervision of the Public Programme Coordinator and will work together with the colleagues from the Public Programme and Communication departments.

Qualifications/Qualities

Language: Fluent English - excellent written and verbal communication skills in English required; Dutch - excellent written and verbal communication skills in Dutch preferred; (Additional languages also a plus); Pursuing a HBO or WO degree in communications/new media, marketing or related field preferred; Experience with social media, WordPress, video editing and Photoshop; Efficient, enthusiastic, pro-active, vacature@princeclausfund.nl mentioning ‘traineeship Public Programme’ in the subject. The Prince Claus Fund provides an allowance of € 250 gross per month based on a fulltime internship.