

Account intern! (Dutch only)

Are you social, organized and fun to work with?

Apply for the position of account intern.

You will support the account department with all customer related matters, together it will be your job to maintain and build a relationship with our clients and give them the best client experience possible.

You will help the account team with the ongoing projects by overviewing the planning, performing small researches, making presentations and attending client meetings.

Additionally, you will have the opportunity to work closely with every department of the company and help with productions, new business and organise Lemon events.

Who are we looking for?

A young storyteller with a pro-active attitude, who also likes an occasional Friday afternoon (digital) drink. You like to organise, coordinate and overview projects. You are a communicative skilled person with a strategic mindset, social, self-driven and eager to learn. Furthermore, you are attending a HBO or WO level university with a media and/or communication orientation and are available on a full-time basis.

Additionally, you speak and write fluent Dutch and English.

What do we have to offer?

We are a creative agency in the centre of Amsterdam at the Korte Prinsengracht. The team is filled with driven, enthusiastic and creative Lemons. We are open go-getters that like to celebrate our successes. At Lemon Scented Tea you will really become part of the team and you'll work on your own projects with a lot of responsibility. You work on real campaigns, for real clients.

Important:

We have place for an intern for a longer period of time (5-6 months). An intern- or graduation assignment is possible, however this should be consulted with us beforehand. An internship payment is in place.

Does this sound appealing to you and do you want to start within our creative agency?
