Internship at Migrantour Utrecht

We are looking for a new intern! Someone who is eager to learn from and contribute to the cultural and social domain. Are you passionate about art-based community work, communication and cultural exchange? Check out this vacancy!

De Voorkamer

De Voorkamer is an open space where cultures meet: a place to belong, a place for new experiences. By offering a platform for creativity and talent, we create a common ground to connect people from different backgrounds and together build a community.

You can join our creative workshops, cultural food events, language cafes, lectures, jam sessions, women's cafes, co-created exhibitions, storytelling events, and much more. All created by and for our diverse community. Curious to engage with other cultural practices and express your own? Eager to contribute to more welcoming places? Looking to participate by exploring your own talent? Come by for a cardamom coffee, mint tea, or a piece of old Dutch cheese.

Migrantour Utrecht hosted by De Voorkamer.

At Migrantour Utrecht, we're passionate about raising awareness about Utrecht's migrant heritage and enabling our tour participants to reflect on how this heritage connects to their own. We do that by offering 2-hour interactive guided walking tours co-created and led by our team of intercultural companions with diverse migration backgrounds.

Migrantour is more than a regular tourism initiative. With over 25 locations across nine European countries and a team of 600 trained intercultural companions, we're committed to promoting global citizenship values and competencies. Our tours are designed to reshape mental maps, create spaces of encounter and (re-)discover places through stories. We believe that by bringing people together and encouraging dialogue, we can create a more compassionate and empathetic society.

Practicalities

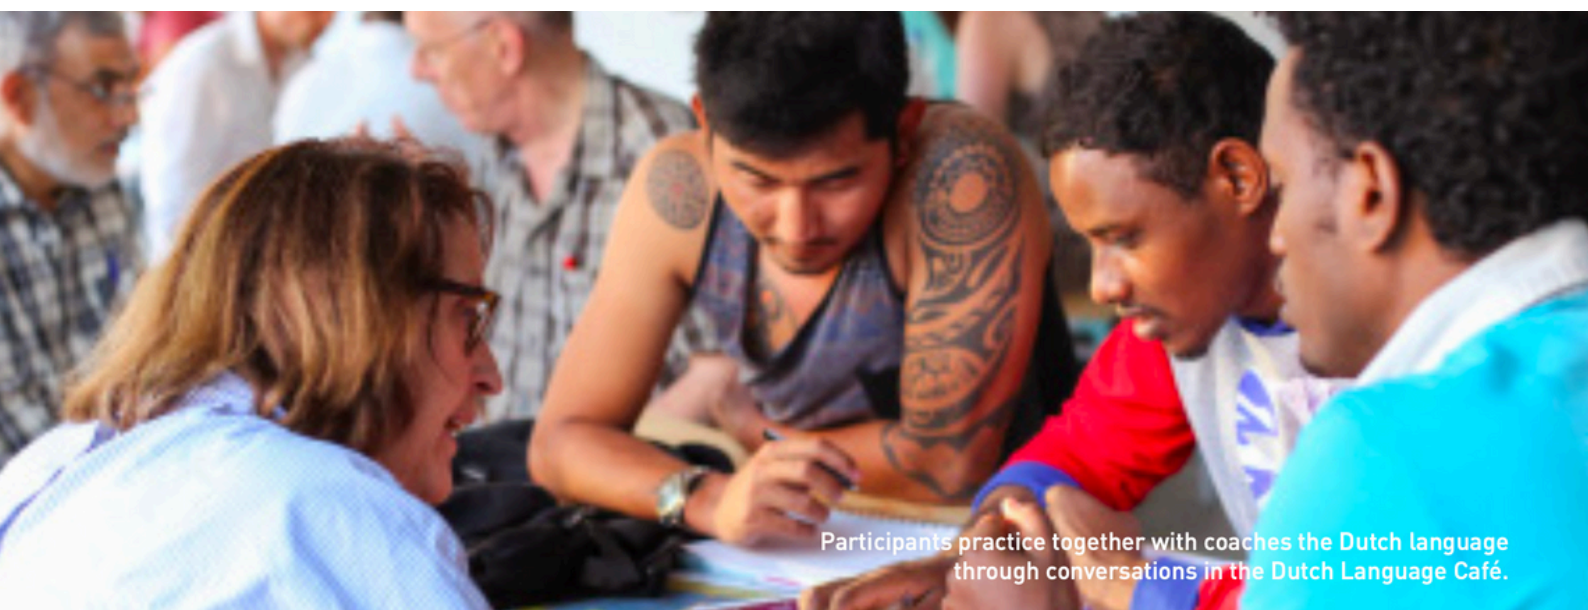

- We preferably take on interns who can commit to 16-20 hours per week. We always work together as a team in De Voorkamer on Mondays and Thursdays from 9:00-17:30. Therefore, we ideally have interns join us these days, so that you can have a more involved and social experience.
- If you are chosen to come for an interview, these will take place between December 16-20.
- The internship will begin the first or second week of February.
- Feel free to submit your motivation letter/CV in Dutch if it is more comfortable for you. It is good to note that the working language in our space is English. We do have colleagues who speak Dutch and Arabic, we do not want you to feel limited by your (current) language skills!

The intern's tasks may include:

- Identifying and developing content for social media;
- Identifying community needs for and developing co-creative projects;
- Hosting activities (creative workshops, lunches, team gatherings, etc.);
- Supporting the training of new Intercultural Companions;
- Providing creative input for the development of tours;
- As an organization we offer our team members the space to work from their own initiative and talent.

Our ideal team member is:

- Living in Utrecht;
- Interested in other cultures, meeting other people, and the exchange of knowledge;
- Experienced/interested in working with people from various cultural backgrounds;
- Proactive, motivated and takes initiative;
- Social, approaches people easily and can take the lead in collaborations.
- Has their own laptop they can use to work on.
- Do you need to commit more hours to an internship or are unavailable on Mondays or Thursdays? Please write about this in your motivation letter!

Participants practice together with coaches the Dutch language through conversations in the Dutch Language Café.

What can you expect from Migrantour Utrecht?

- An energetic, active and involved team;
- A diverse work environment – we can use De Voorkamer as our workspace
- An introduction to other cultures;
- Guidance from the team
- Other 'perks' such as a delicious lunches, access to concerts and other activities and an informal workplace where great contacts can be made.
- A monthly financial compensation.

As part of our efforts in ensuring the representation of our community in the team, we encourage and prioritize applications from candidates with bi-cultural and migrant background.

If you are interested, please send a motivation letter and your CV by the end of the day December 9th 2024 to info@devoorkamer.org.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us!
